OCM BOCES TRAINS ADULTS FOR CAREERS THAT ARE IN DEMAND

Every two years, the New York State Department of Labor publishes long-term, statewide occupational projections that cover a 10-year planning period (currently 2014-2024). These projections are intended to help individuals make informed education and career decisions and assist educators and training providers in planning for future workforce needs.

Long-term projections data for skilled trade occupations in New York State are impressive. From 2014 to 2024, the combined total job count in the skilled trades in New York is expected to grow by 116,270, or 17.0%. In addition, the skilled trades in New York State are expected to offer almost 25,000 openings each year, including 11,780 due to employment growth and 13,110 due to replacement need.

As noted above, many skilled trade occupations are high paying and do not require a college degree. Some examples include: electricians, HVAC mechanics and installers, machinery mechanics, and many skilled positions in the medical field.

Employers throughout New York State currently face labor shortages as they attempt to hire workers in the skilled trades. These worker shortages are expected to worsen in the coming years due to demographic factors (retiring baby boomers) and economic factors (increased demand for skilled trades workers).

As the average age in many skilled trade occupations continues to climb and older workers begin to exit the labor force, there are not enough trained individuals in the pipeline ready to replace retiring workers.

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNICIAN

Automotive Technology is one of the fastest-filling programs at OCM BOCES. Students have the opportunity to be trained in a state-of-the-art automotive facility geared toward modern automotive services. Students enrolled in this 800-hour program will prepare for direct entry into automotive mechanics, service and repair. Instruction includes preparation for the National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation (NATEF) certification in four modules: suspension and steering, engine performance, electrical and electronic systems and braking systems. Thanks to NAPA's donation of a digital vehicle inspection system, our students are now able to identify safety and maintenance issues by using an iPad or tablet, reducing paperwork, streamlining accuracy and enhancing communication between the garage, owner and customer.

The automotive industry generates annual wages and benefits estimated in excess of $12 billion in New York State. Direct automotive employment in New York exceeds 30,000 jobs and another 200,000 employees work in auto-related businesses such as parts suppliers and other contractors. According to the U.S. Department of Labor, changes in economic conditions generally have minor effects on the automotive service and repair business. Opportunities in the automotive industry should be plentiful in vehicle maintenance and repair occupations, especially for employees with formal automotive service technician training.

Based on data from the 2015-16 Council on Occupational Education (COE) report, students who graduated from this program had a 93% employment rate in the automotive technology field.

OUTSTANDING BALANCES

Upon termination of enrollment, any balance due to OCM BOCES (based on the school's refund policy) is payable immediately. All charges on the student's account must be paid in full prior to the completion of the training program. OCM BOCES reserves the right to withhold student transcripts and deny approval for state board examinations to any student who has an outstanding tuition balance.

Onondaga-Cortland-Madison BOCES offers specialized, short-term clock hour training programs and is a non-credit bearing institution. Therefore, the institution does not allow students to transfer between programs within the facility.

TRANSFER POLICY FOR FULL-TIME PROGRAMS

TRANSFER FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS:

Onondaga-Cortland-Madison BOCES offers specialized, short-term, clock-hour training programs and is a non-credit bearing institution. Therefore, with the exception of the Cosmetology Program, we do not allow students to transfer credits or clock hours from other institutions. (See below for Cosmetology transfer students.)

TRANSFER WITHIN THE INSTITUTION:

Due to the specialized content in each of our vocational training programs, clock hours attended are only applicable to each individual program. No transfer between training programs is accepted. Students are free to withdraw from a program and re-apply to another at the next scheduled start date. Acceptance to the new program will be based upon fulfilling all prerequisites and available space.

TRANSFER POLICY (COSMETOLOGY PROGRAM ONLY):

Students transferring from another institution must provide official transcripts of any previous education received, including documented clinical hours. A prospective student's clinical competency skills will be assessed by the cosmetology instructor to determine his or her level of proficiency. The instructor and/or program coordinator will then determine the number of OCM BOCES clock hours required to complete the New York State licensing requirements. Tuition will be prorated based on the number of hours to be completed. Transfer students will be responsible for providing all kit supplies, including a mannequin.

Please Note: Transfer students must be enrolled for a period of 100, 300 or 700 clock hours.
