Angelo Del Toro Puerto Rican/Hispanic Youth Leadership Institute
Syracuse Delegation Student Application Form 2019
ESSAY QUESTION

The Puerto Rican/Hispanic Youth Leadership Institute is named in honor of the late Angelo del Toro. Assemblyman del Toro captured, in his life and work, the ideals and determination that bring younger Latino/Latina leaders together each year. The Institute is a product of his vision for the Hispanic/Latino community.

All can be inspired by Angelo del Toro's life as an example of what is possible for those who believe in themselves and their potential in serving their communities while preserving the foundations of their heritage.

Your task is to write a short, concise essay:

- For Returning Delegates:

In what ways did you grow during the PRHYLI 2018 and how can your leadership skills continue to develop?

- For New Applicants:

Identify a way in which you can positively make a contribution to your own community. Given your Hispanic heritage, share the qualities and experiences you feel you can contribute to the leadership program which will help you be an agent of change.

Your essay must:

- be typed using Times Roman or Arial 12 - point font
- be double spaced
- have 1" margins
- not exceed 500 words
- have a word count added to the bottom of the essay
 - in Word – Review, Word Count
 - in Google Doc – Tools, Word Count
