

RUBRIC: CIVIC EVENT/MEETING REFLECTIVE ESSAY (24 POINTS/PERCENT OF FINAL GRADE)

Category	7 - 8 Points	5 - 6 Points	3 - 4 Points	1 - 2 Points	No Credit
Analyzing the issues at the meeting/event	Student is able to use his/her analysis of the civil event to share and differentiate between the issues on a local level and on a fed/state level.	Student demonstrates a clear understanding of all aspects of the governmental issues raised and can identify relationships between issues on a local level and on a fed/state level.	Student demonstrates a fair level of knowledge of some aspects of the government issue and can discuss some aspects of the issues on a local level.	Student rarely demonstrates an understanding of some of the aspects of the governmental event and cannot identify relationships between issues on a local level.	NOT DONE
Evaluating the goals of the parties involved	Student demonstrates understanding of the major players' points of view and can use several evaluation techniques to compare and contrast to others.	Student demonstrates understanding of the major players' points of view and can use some evaluation techniques to compare and contrast to others.	Student demonstrates understanding of the major players' points of view and can use minimal evaluation techniques to compare and contrast to others.	Student demonstrates little understanding of the major players' points of view and can use little evaluation techniques to compare and contrast to others.	NOT DONE
Interpreting how effective this level of government is	Student actively demonstrates an understanding that the governmental process must be a partnership between the citizens and elected officials.	Student demonstrates an understanding that the governmental process must be a partnership between the citizens and elected officials.	Student minimally demonstrates an understanding that the governmental process must be a partnership between the citizens and elected officials.	Student demonstrates little if no understanding that the governmental process must be a partnership between the citizens and elected officials.	NOT DONE

Your Score is _____ out of 24 Points Possible