

RUBRIC: Community Service Reflection Essay (24 POINTS/PERCENT OF FINAL GRADE)

Category	7 - 8 Points	5 - 6 Points	3 - 4 Points	1 - 2 Points	No Credit
Organizational Objectives and Meeting Community Needs	Student is able to analyze the needs of the community and identify ways in which the organization is attempting to meet these needs. Student provides alternative ideas for meeting community needs and/or identifies additional community needs.	Student clearly demonstrates understanding of the organization's objectives and provides examples of how the organization meets actual community needs.	Student demonstrates a fair level of knowledge of the organization's objectives and community needs.	Student rarely demonstrates an understanding of the organization's objectives and how they are designed to meet the needs of the community.	NOT DONE
Student Service and Impact on Organization and Community	Student provides thoughtful reflection and detailed accounts of how his/her service impacted the organization and community. Student is able to identify and reflect upon the service impact of other volunteer positions within the organization.	Student reflection demonstrates that the student understands the basic impact of their service. Student uses limited or no detailed accounts of service in order to express the impact their service made to the organization or community.	Student reflection is either unorganized or difficult to understand. Reflections demonstrate little connection between service performed and value to the community.	Reflection demonstrates no connection between service performed and value to the community.	NOT DONE
Value of Community Service	Student provides a number of reasons why community service better our society. Student identifies a number of ways an individual can personally grown as a result of skills gained from volunteering.	Student examples demonstrate that the student has a basic understanding of how volunteering benefits the community and volunteer.	Student demonstrates a fair level of understanding of how societies benefit from community service.	Student demonstrates limited understanding of the concept of giving back.	NOT DONE

Your Score is _____ out of 24 Points Possible