Thinking about what you want to do after high school is exciting. Preparation for that journey is key while you are still in school. Parents, students and guardians need to learn the requirements for graduation. A high school diploma is achieved through mastering state academic standards, passing required tests and courses and earning credits. In this training, we will explain the different requirements for the Regents and Local Diploma. We will also discuss how students can use their strengths to achieve a diploma through multiple pathways. We will explore the importance of career readiness skills and the credentials available. This training is sure to help you navigate which

Independent Living Centers (ILCs) provide an array of services that assist New Yorkers with all disabilities to live fully integrated and self-directed lives. ILCs assist with all aspects of living, learning and earning.

They identify and facilitate removal of architectural, communication and attitudinal barriers to full participation in local communities and beyond.

Join the RSE-TASC Transition Specialists and the Community Employment Specialists (CES) at ARISE in Syracuse to see how ARISE supports Onondaga, Madison, Oswego, and Cayuga Counties. Learn about the importance of the latest graduation regulations to support transition planning.
