

Caregiver Camp: Understanding Insurance- Long-term Care, Medicare & Medicaid

This workshop will provide a general overview of the three types of insurance you are likely to encounter as you care for an aging loved one or plan for your own future. We will explore the types of services covered, eligibility requirements, restrictions/exclusions, where to get more information or assistance in signing up for a program and the pros and cons of each type of insurance coverage.